MUSEUM TRAVEL PROGRAM

Italian Art at the National Gallery

Italian Art at the National Gallery of Art
with Laura Giles
Heather and Paul G. Haaga Jr., Class of 1970, Curator of Prints and Drawings

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2014

Join curator Laura Giles for a day at the National Gallery devoted to the arts of Italy. Upon your arrival in Washington, spend the morning with masterpieces by Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael, and Fra Angelico in the stunning galleries of Italian painting. Enjoy lunch as a group in the Garden Court before going on a behind-the-scenes tour of the Works on Paper Study Room. Round out the afternoon with a visit to the special exhibition From Neoclassicism to Futurism: Italian Prints and Drawings, 1800–1925. Before heading back to Princeton, savor dinner at the Old Ebbit Grill, a popular meeting spot for political insiders, journalists, and celebrities—just steps from the White House.

COST $275 per person
Includes: Bus transportation, admission, lunch, snacks, dinner
Limited to 18 guests

Depart from Princeton at 8 a.m.; return 10:30 p.m.
